

Meer Zukunft

The Faculty of the Humanities at the University of Rostock invites applications for a

Professorship for British and American Cultural Studies (salary level W2)

at the Institute of British and American Literature/Cultural Studies at the earliest possible date (within budget considerations).

In the area of teaching, the holder of the professorship is expected to cover the full scope of the field of British and American Cultural Studies. We seek an academic personality with a research specialization in the fields Postcolonial and Transcultural Studies (Master-Program) und Gender/Class/EthnicityStudies (intersectionality). Additional expertise in the area of Environmental Cultural Studies would be very desirable.

In addition, the faculty expects of the future colleague to contribute to the work at the Interdisciplinary Faculty (INF) of Rostock University and its various departments.

For further inquiries, please contact:

Frau Prof. Dr. Gesa Mackenthun, chair of appointments committee

Tel.: +49 381/498-2586

email: gesa.mackenthun@uni-rostock.de

Qualifications are as per § 58 of the Higher Education Act of the State of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern (LHG M-V): completed university studies, doctoral degree, post-doctoral thesis ("Habilitation") teaching experience or equivalent, substantial qualifications.

A special focus is placed on academic achievement and teaching qualifications as well academic organization and administration. For this reason candidates should describe previous teaching results, ideas regarding future teaching (including didactic lesson planning) and their prior experience in academic and research management.

In addition, candidates are expected to have experience and interest in developing programs that can attract and maintain external funding.

The professorship is to be filled according to § 61 LHG M-V as a position with civil servant status for life, or, if applicable, for 5 years. It is also possible to fill the position as a regular state employee.

The University of Rostock is committed to their university management guidelines.

Equal opportunities are part of our personnel policy. The announcement is therefore aimed at all persons regardless of their gender (* gender-neutral). Disabled applicants will be given preference if all other qualifications are essentially equal.

The University of Rostock is especially interested in promoting women within the context of § 7 (3) of the Gender Equality Act, and therefore specifically encourages applications from qualified women. Women will be given priority if their qualifications are essentially equivalent, unless reasons attributable to the person of the competitor predominate.

Applications with the usual documents (full CV, a complete list of academic and professional background, publications, teaching experience, any additional qualifications, a summary of grants and sponsored research activities and a description of future research plans) should be sent no later than May 1, 2019 to the Universität Rostock, Dekan der Philosophischen Fakultät, August Bebel-Straße 28, 18055 Rostock.

Application costs cannot be reimbursed by the State of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. We ask you to submit applications only in copy, as they will not be returned after the procedure has been completed.