The Faculty of Philosophy at the University of Rostock invites applications for a

Professorship for Practical Philosophy (salary level W3)

At the Department of Philosophy, to commence April 1st 2024 (within budget considerations).

We are looking for a highly motivated person with leadership competencies and the capacity to cover a broad range of topics within the field of practical philosophy in teaching and research. The candidate is expected to have both a systematic research focus on ethics, philosophical anthropology and/or social philosophy on the one hand and a historical research focus. The successful candidate’s responsibilities will primarily consist of:

- Contributing to the master programme “Social Philosophy”
- Contributing to the introduction lectures on the history of philosophy (ancient philosophy or modern philosophy)
- Managing the teaching modules pertaining to practical philosophy

Moreover, the successful candidate will be responsible for the sub-department “teaching methodology”. The successful candidate is also expected to apply for research funding and to contribute research within the faculty’s research associations as well as to the four departments of the Interdisciplinary Faculty of the University of Rostock.

Qualifications are as per § 58 of the Higher Education Act of the State of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern (LHG M-V): Completed university studies, doctoral degree, post-doctoral thesis (“Habilitation”) or equivalent, substantial teaching experience.
The professorship is to be filled according to § 61 LHG M-V as a position with civil servant status for life or, where appropriate, for 5 years or as a regular state employee.

A special focus is placed on academic achievement and teaching qualifications as well academic organization and administration. For this reason candidates should describe previous teaching results, ideas regarding future teaching (including didactic lesson planning) and their prior experience in academic and scientific management. In addition, candidates are expected to have experience and interest in developing programs that can attract and maintain external funding.

The University of Rostock is committed to their university management guidelines.

Equal opportunities are part of our personnel policy. The announcement is therefore aimed at all persons regardless of their gender (*gender-neutral). Disabled applicants will be given preference if all other qualifications are essentially equal.
The University of Rostock is especially interested in promoting women within the context of § 7 (3) of the Gender Equality Act, and therefore specifically encourages applications from qualified women. Women will be given priority if their qualifications are essentially equivalent, unless reasons attributable to the person of the competitor predominate.

Applications with the usual documents (full CV, a complete list of academic and professional background, publications, teaching experience, certificates, any additional qualifications, a summary of grants and sponsored research activities and a description of future research plans) should be sent no later than 31.08.2022 to the Universität Rostock, Dekan der Philosophischen Fakultät, August-Bebel-Straße 28, 18055 Rostock or preferably by e-mail to berufungen.phf@uni-rostock.de (please all documents in one PDF file). We would like to point out that your e-mail will be sent to us unencrypted.

The protection of your personal information is very important to us. Therefore, the data collected during the application process will be collected, processed and used in accordance with the relevant data protection rules.

Application costs cannot be reimbursed by the State of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. We ask you to submit applications only in copy, as they will not be returned after the procedure has been completed.
