

Announcement of Elections

Elections for the Council, Academic Senate and Faculty Councils from 11 to 25 June 2025

ELECTORAL PRINCIPLES (§ 4 WahIO)

The elections to the university bodies are direct, free, fair and secret. They will take place as internet-based electronic voting (online-elections) with the possibility of casting votes via postal voting and will be held in accordance with the principles of personalised proportional representation and with list vote principles. Each voter has as many votes as there are available seats belonging to his/her member group in the respective electoral group. Voters may not cast more than one vote for an individual candidate. Further details are defined in the University of Rostock's Wahlordnung (Electoral Regulations) of 29 October 2021 (Official Bulletin of the University of Rostock 48/2021), last amended by the Amending Statutes of 30 October 2023 (Official Bulletin of the University of Rostock 52/2023).

RIGHT TO VOTE (§§ 2, 16 WahIO)

Only those persons listed on the voting register are entitled to vote. The cut-off date for entries to the voting register is 22 April 2025. Furthermore, each voter is only permitted to cast his/her votes in one group of university members and for one organisational unit. The voting register will be on display during opening hours at the Electoral Office from 2 to 12 May 2025 and can be viewed following prior arrangement over the phone. Any member of the university community who believes the voting register to be incorrect or incomplete, can request rectification by submitting an official form in writing with signature, addressed to the Returning Officer by 12 May 2025.

LISTS OF CANDIDATES (§§ 17-21 WahIO)

Lists of candidates must be submitted to the Electoral Office by 12 May 2025, 3.00 p.m. Lists of candidates should be submitted to the Electoral Office via email or via the in-house postal service/regular post. The following must be observed:

1. Lists of candidates must be submitted to the Electoral Office using an official form. The forms for submitting lists of candidates shall be available from 22 April 2025 at the Electoral Office, at the secretariats of the heads of organisational units and at the offices of the Deans of Studies/Student Offices, or via the Electoral Office's webpages.
2. Lists of candidates must be created separately for university bodies and groups of members (professorial staff, students, members of academic staff, members of non-academic staff). The group of professorial staff must be split into electoral groups for elections to the Council and Academic Senate. The number of eligible representatives is detailed in the annex to this announcement of elections. This is on display for viewing at the Electoral Office and will be published on the Electoral Office's webpages.
3. In an election for the same university body, a person who is entitled to vote may not stand for election on more than one list of candidates or be named more than once on a single list of candidates.
4. In proportional representation elections, 'lists' with only one candidate will be approved as a list of candidates.

The overview of all of the lists of candidates shall be announced by 23 May 2025 at the latest. It will be on display at the Electoral Office and can be viewed following prior arrangement over the phone. Furthermore, it will be published on the Electoral Office's webpages.

ISSUE OF ELECTORAL DOCUMENTS (§ 24 WahIO)

The elections will be held as online-elections with the possibility of casting votes via postal voting upon prior request. Honorary professors, Privatdozents and außerplanmäßige Professoren (both kinds of senior lecturers) that do not belong to the full-time teaching staff at the University of Rostock will only be able to cast their votes via postal voting. The corresponding documents for postal voting for these persons will be sent out automatically via post.

Online-Elections

If the voter is casting his/her votes online, s/he must access and use the electronic ballot paper on the online-election portal that is accessible via a user-specific smart link. The voter's personal username and password for the user account at the University/University Medical Center of Rostock will be required for legitimisation on the election server.

Postal Voting

The election documents for postal voting must be requested in writing with the signature of the person entitled to vote using an official postal voting request that must be submitted to the Electoral Office by 21 May 2025. Persons entitled to vote are excluded from electronic voting as soon as the election documents for postal voting have been sent or handed over to them. The election documents will be sent to the persons entitled to vote by 11 June 2025 by the latest. If incorrect or incomplete election documents have been received or the documents have been lost, replacement election documents can be obtained from the Electoral Office.

CASTING VOTES (§ 25, 25b WahIO)

The deadline for casting electronic votes begins on 11 June 2025, 12.00 p.m. and ends on 25 June 2025, 12.00 p.m. Electronic votes can also be cast on a PC provided for this purpose at the Electoral Office that can be used during office hours and following prior arrangement of a specific time. The official return envelope for postal voting must have been received by the Electoral Office by 25 June 2025, 12.00 p.m. at the latest.

COUNTING OF VOTES (§ 26 WahIO)

The counting of postal votes is open to the members of the university community and will take place at the Electoral Office, starting on 26 June 2025 at 9.00 a.m. It is possible to attend the counting following prior arrangement over the phone.

DETERMINATION OF THE FINAL RESULTS (§ 30 WahIO)

The final results will be announced in the Official Bulletin of the University of Rostock and on the Electoral Office's webpages at the beginning of calendar week 33.
