INTERNSHIP OFFER AT FINABEL, BRUSSELS

Finabel is a Land Force Organisation based in Brussels which is comprised of 22 Members of the European Union, promoting cooperation and interoperability among the Members' armed forces.

The missions of Finabel are:
(1) To promote and to facilitate the interoperability of the armies
(2) The harmonisation of concepts, doctrines and procedures
(3) To work towards the development of a common European understanding of defence problems

Our Organization is regularly looking for new trainees and we would like to inform you that we are currently also adapting with the COVID-19 situation, following the rules in our Office and giving the possibility to do the internship remotely in the RESEARCH TEAM.
The internship is UNPAID unless the student applies to an Erasmus Placement Scholarship through the University.

We are interested in the following fields:
POLITICAL SCIENCE, INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, EUROPEAN STUDIES, INFORMATIC/COMPUTER SCIENCE RELATED TO CYBERSECURITY, MARKETING & COMMUNICATION, SOCIAL SCIENCES, LAW, PHILOLOGY, or any other similar field.

To cover for positions in the Permanent Secretariat for:
RESEARCH TEAM
LEGAL TEAM
COMMUNICATIONS UNIT
EDITOR
EVENTS COORDINATOR

The student must have a good knowledge of English, preferably B2 or higher when applying for the legal, even and communication team. For the research team we request a C1 and for the editor position we prefer a native speaker. Students applying must have at least a Bachelor’s degree. The tasks will be assigned depending on the position applied.

The internship should last at least three months and could last up to one year, but the duration, as well as the schedule, are very flexible.

Students that are interested should send their candidature in our webpage: https://finabel.org/careers/

For more information, please visit: http://www.finabel.org