COMPANY DESCRIPTION

SAP started in 1972 as a team of five colleagues with a desire to do something new. Together, they changed enterprise software and reinvented how business was done. Today, as a market leader in enterprise application software, we remain true to our roots. That’s why we engineer solutions to fuel innovation, foster equality and spread opportunity for our employees and customers across borders and cultures.

SAP values the entrepreneurial spirit, fostering creativity and building lasting relationships with our employees. We know that a diverse and inclusive workforce keeps us competitive and provides opportunities for all. We believe that together we can transform industries, grow economies, lift up societies and sustain our environment. Because it’s the best-run businesses that make the world run better and improve people’s lives.

Job description :
Requisition ID: 249005
Work Area: Corporate Operations
Location: Munich
Expected Travel: 0 - 10%
Career Status: Student
Employment Type: Limited Part Time

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

Munich is one of the fastest booming areas in Europe and well known for worldwide market leading companies in various industries. Munich has also world-class universities such as TUM and LMU and one of world's top startup ecosystems. As research and close collaboration with customer, partners, startups and students has always been a key component of SAP’s success, SAP has decided to invest in Munich and to expand the strategic partnership with the Technical University of Munich.

EXPECTATIONS AND TASKS

You will be part of the SAP Labs Munich team and work closely with the SAP Labs Head of Innovation Ecosystem and Communication being exposed to a variety of topics in a fast-changing environment.

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

Support the internal communication efforts of SAP Munich, incl. internal communication channels, creating SAP Munich wide communication announcements and the setup of internal events
When applicable, support external communication efforts, incl. SAP Labs Munich’s social media and website presence
Help to create marketing material for internal and external purposes
Support the development of an external event portfolio for SAP Munich and the organization of external events in collaboration with our partners, such as internal and external start-up accelerators and TUM

We look for candidates who can work with us for at least for one year for 16 hours or more per week (in average, of course this is flexible regarding phases of preparation for exams, semester breaks, etc.).

Then YOU are the right candidate for this position. We are looking forward to your application and getting to know you.

Your set of application documents should contain a cover letter, a resume in table form, school leaving certificates, certificate of enrollment, current university transcript of records, copies of any academic degrees already earned, and if available, references from former employers (including internships). Please describe as well your experience and skills in foreign languages and computer programs / programming languages.
